VOL. CXXXIV—No. 94. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1918. PRICE ONE CENT.

THE CAMPAIGN WARMING UP IN ALEXANDRIA FOR THE SALE OF LIBERTY LOAN BONDS

Over $160,000 Worth Disposed of to Date—Expect to Reach $200,000 Mark by Tomorrow Night—Celebration Talked of for April 26, "Liberty Day." Committee of Thirty to Visit Camp Humphreys Tomorrow.

PRESIDENT WILSON SETS APRIL 26 AS LIBERTY DAY FOR ALL TO BOOST THIRD LIBERTY LOAN.

President Wilson late last night issued a proclamation designating Friday, April 26, as Liberty Day and requesting the people to "liberally pledge anew their financial support" to the government. He said:

"An enemy who has grossly abused the power of organized government and who seeks to dominate the world by the might of his sword, challenges the rights of America and the liberty and life of all the free nations of the earth. Our brave sons are facing the fire of battle in defense of the honor and rights of America and the liberty of nations. To sustain them and to assist our gallant associates in the war, a generous and patriotic people have been called upon to subscribe to the Third Liberty Loan.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Friday, the twenty-sixth day of April, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen, as Liberty Day. On the afternoon of that day I request the people of the United States to assemble in their respective communities and liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the Nation's cause. Patriotic demonstrations should be held in every city, town and hamlet throughout the land under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury and the immediate direction of the liberty loan committee organized by the Federal reserve banks. Let the nation's response to the Third Liberty Loan express in unmistakable terms the determination of America to fight for peace, the permanent peace of justice.

"For the purpose of participating in Liberty Day celebrations, all employes of the Federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared, may be excused at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, the twenty-sixth of April."

A committee of thirty men and women will go to Camp Humphreys tomorrow to spend the afternoon in selling Liberty Bonds to the employes of P. F. Cormley, the contractor who is building the camp. Over three thousand men are engaged there in work for the contractor, and it is expected that the bond sales will total over $100,000 before the campaign is over.

The committee will go under the auspices of the Liberty Loan Committee and the local banks. An organization of the men for the purpose of aiding the sale of bonds has been perfected by F. J. Fisher, general superintendent. He has instructed his assistant superintendants to each call the foremen together and instruct each foreman to talk to each man personally about the value of buying Liberty Bonds. He is also distributing Liberty Loan primers so that the men can inform themselves concerning the new loan.

The campaign for the Liberty Loan here in Alexandria is warming up. The bond sale has passed the $160,000 mark, and it is predicted that it will be close to $200,000 by tomorrow night. The allotment for the city is $290,000.

Monday begins the third week of the campaign, and it is the next to the last week of the big drive. The campaign closes on Saturday, May 4.

President Wilson has set Friday, April 26, as Liberty Day, and has requested the people to "liberally pledge anew their financial support" to the government on that day.

It is probable that the Chamber of Commerce as an additional contribution to the Liberty Loan campaign will have a big celebration here.

IRISHMEN THROW ROCKS.

Virtually Every Plate Glass Window in Belfast Street Smashed During Row.

London, April 19.—Rioting attended the breaking up of an anticonscription meeting in Belfast Wednesday, according to a dispatch to the Daily News. Revolvers were used, and charges were made by the police, who were pelted with paving stones. Virtually every plate glass window in the street was smashed. Fifteen thousand persons participated in the meeting, which was called by the Labor party. The trouble was precipitated, the dispatch says, by 200 young shipyard workers.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

This is Spring, which is the beginning of life and happiness. Let's spring a surprise on the kaiser, who is the mortal enemy of life and happiness, by oversubscribing the Third Liberty Bond issue.

No American has a right to interfere with production or the destination of products from this country. The resources of the country belong to Liberty. Liberty has the first call upon the manhood and womanhood of the nation, and upon all the products that are needed to STRIKE DOWN and ANNIHILATE the ENEMY.

WHEAT PRICE REJECTED.

Senate Now Expected to Recede; to Speed Agricultural Bill.

The proposed increase of the government guaranteed price of wheat to $2.50 from $2.20 fixed by President Wilson was defeated last night in the House, which rejected by a vote of 167 to 98 the Senate amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill making the change. This action sends the question back to conference, and the Senate now is expected to recede so as not to hold up the appropriation bill.

Representative Lever, chairman of the agriculture committee, who recently led the fight against the adoption of the amendment, declared the proposed guarantee would not increase the spring wheat production, and denied that the present guarantee is inadequate.

The vote was preceded by four hours of general debate.

WATCHES ON ANKLES.

Town in Delaware Completely Upset by Maids' Display.

Newark, Del., April 18.—Residents suffered a shock yesterday afternoon when two well-known young women appeared on Main street wearing ankle watches. There were several narrow escapes from accidents when drivers of automobiles forgot their wheels in the excitement of the moment.

Nearly every store door and window held a rubberneck and repeated calls of "What time is it?" but the young women did not seem to mind in the least the furore they were raising. They were neatly and attractively dressed. They wore low shoes, with black silk hose, the watches strapped to their left ankles.

SLAYS WOMAN WITH AN AX

Admirer Becomes Enraged When She Hales Him Before Court.

Lancaster, Pa., April 19.—Enraged because the woman he loved had sent him to court to answer charges of assault against her three children, William McMiller, it is alleged, beat Dora Ford on the head with an ax, inflicting wounds from which she died. The slayer made his escape.

The couple came here from Coatesville last month. McMiller is said to have cruelly beaten and treated the little ones and for this reason was driven from the house by the mother, who had been prosecuted. He later returned to the house, enticed the woman into the yard and attacked her.

MANY SEEK JONES' SEAT.

Three State Senators, Judge and Attorney General Among Candidates.

Richmond, Va., April 19. — Three state senators, one former state senator, a judge, an attorney general and several others prominent in Virginia politics, are candidates for the vacant seat in Congress, caused by the death of Representative William A. Jones, of Richmond county.

Senator C. O'Connor Goolrick, Fredericksburg; Senator Saxon W. Holt, Newport News; Judge Clagett B. Joes, King and Queen; Senator G. Walter Mapp, of Accomac; Attorney General John H. Saunders and former Senator J. Boyd Sear, of Mathews, are aspirants for the vacancy. In addition to these R. S. Buxton, of Newport News, and several others have announced themselves candidates.

Governor Davis probably will issue a writ for a special election as soon as he is notified officially from Washington that a vacancy exists in Congress. Thirty days' notice is required and the election hardly will be held before June 1.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO.

Did Not Recognize Men Who Took Prisoner From Jail, Says Sheriff.

Poplarville, Miss., April 19.—Claud Singleton, a negro convicted Wednesday night of the murder last March of E. J. Bounds, a white railroad worker, was taken from the county jail here and hanged to a tree. A mob of about a hundred persons previously forced the sheriff to turn over the keys to the jail.

Singleton was arrested about a week ago. His trial opened Wednesday morning and he was convicted and senteræd to life imprisonment. Another negro also indicted in the murder has not as yet been arrested.

Singleton killed Bounds, a flagman, when the latter endeavored to put him off a freight car, according to the prosecuting attorney. The coroner's jury last night brought in a vordict to the effect that Singleton came to his death at the hand of a mob. The sheriff stated he was unable to recognize any of the members of the mob.

New Orleans, April 19.—Nine Americans were slain at and near Tampico, Mex., a fortnight ago, according to a report made yesterday by Captain F. M. Sadler, just returned.

"Four of the Americans were killed on the same floor of the hotel at which I was stopping the night of April 6," said he. "There are many Germans in the city, and they are very pronounced in their attitude of dislike toward Americans."

SUICIDE HAD KILLED WOMAN.

Thought Mrs. Mullen Better Off Dead, Said Note in Bushe's Pocket.

Cumberland, Md., April 19.—The body of Harry Bushe, aged 32, single, a locomotive engineer, who committed suicide by throwing himself under a train Tuesday at Pittsburgh, was brought to the home of his father, Peter Bushe, of Ocean, this county, yesterday.

Officers were pursuing Bushe, who was charged with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Mullen at her home in Pittsburg Tuesday night. He had planned the murder several days in advance, according to notes found in his pockets. In one he said he was sorry for "this girl." He said he took her away from her husband, John Mullen, and established a home for her. "I thought she would be better off dead," said another note.

STARVING IN ALMSHOUSE.

Court Orders Prosecution When It Gets Grand Jury's Report.

Lancaster, Pa., April 19.—More than 100 aged women inmates of the Lancaster county almshouse are actually facing starvation, according to a report made to the court by the grand jury after an extensive investigation. The report said that they were so scantily fed that they were hungry when sent to bed and were limited to but one ration of butter a week. It was further stated that the sanitary conditions were very bad and Judge Hassler ordered that the poor directors immediately remedy conditions and prosecute those guilty.

York, Pa., April 19. — The York county almshouse was condemned yesterday by the grand jury as a menace to the health of the inmates. In a report to the court the jury stated that the buildings were unsanitary and unsafe and that repairs should be made immediately to assure safety of the inmates.

VIRGINIA IS BEHIND

Per Capita Sales of War Savings Stamps Only Ninety-Nine Cents—Vigorous Work Must Be Done to Hold Up Record.

Reports filed recently with Thomas B. McAdams, Director of War Savings in Virginia, indicate that the greatest activity will be necessary during the next few months if Virginia is to live up to her responsibilities in this important work, for, after three months of campaigning, the per capita sales in the state amount only to ninety-nine cents, less than one-twentieth of the $20 per capita sales apportioned the Commonwealth as her share. With one-fourth of the time already gone, it is evident that only the most concerted efforts and the greatest cooperation can bring about the results necessary if the record made in other campaigns is to be upheld.

To Richmond workers, one of the greatest disappointments yet experienced is the fact that the capitol city is far down on the list. While the largest amount of stamps has been sold there, the city has the greatest number of people from which to draw and the sales have in no way mounted up as it was believed they would. However the present standing has not tended to cause the Director to lose heart or to lessen his efforts. He and his committeemen, once having glanced through the report of sales, have realized the amount of work before them and have gotten seriously to work and all predict that the next report will show Richmond well up among the very leaders.

Radford leads both cities and counties with per capita sales of $5.80. Bristol holds second rank among the cities with per capita sales of $4.55. Buena Vista stands third with $4.32, Richmond fourth with $3.15 and Fredericksburg fifth with $2.78. Portsmouth, with per capita sales of only twenty cents, rests at the bottom of the list and with Newport News and Petersburg is the only city whose per capita sales are less than one dollar.

Several counties have made excellent progress in the work and are keeping up fairly well with the schedule which, if maintained, will insure them selling up to the minimum apportionment. The banner goes to Page county whose per capita sales amount to $4.99. Fauquier stands second with per capita sales of $3; Rockbridge third with $2.48 Prince Edward fourth with $2.47; Henry county ranks fifth with $2.31 per capita sales; Roanoke county sixth with $1.92; Halifax seventh with $1.79; Cumberland eighth with $1.76; Appomattox ninth with $1.61 and Frederick tenth with $1.56.

Greene county holds the bottommost position of all the communities in the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps, having per capita sales of only thirteen cents. Botetourt is next to last with per capita sales of fifteen cents and Fairfax is third from last with sales of only seventeen cents per capita.

Director McAdams recognizes the fact that the early months of the campaign necessarily have been devoted, to a large extent, to the formation of societies and to organizing other forces for the Stamp sales. These organization now should be in excellent shape and their work should make itself evident during the next few months. New organizations are to be formed, additionals drives are to be made and every effort exerted to increase the State sales from now on.

Alexandria county's per capita sales, are 34 cents per head, and those of Alexandria city are $1.11.

FALLS FOUR STORIES.

SMUGGLING LIQUOR

Three Negroes Arrested by Prohibition Inspector Payne Held for the Action of the Grand Jury.

W. E. Payne, prohibition officer, last night arrested three negroes, who gave their names as William Jackson, Waverly Sydnor and William Stauers, upon the charge of bringing unlawful quantities of whisky into the states. The trio boarded an Atlantic Coast Line train at the union depot in Washington early last night. Jackson had twenty-one pints in his baggage, Sydnor twenty-four pints and Stauers fifty-eight pints. The names given are believed to be fictitious. William Wingate, also colored, had been taken in custody on the charge of being an accomplice, but he was made a witness in the Police Court this morning. The three first-named were held for the action of the grand jury, and Wingate was released. He will appear before the next grand jury term. As he resides in Newport News, he left a fifty-dollar bill as collateral for his appearance.

Della Fields, colored, had been arraigned by Officer Power to answer the charge of conducting a disorderly house. She was sent to jail for ninety days.

Blanche Parker, colored, a visitor to the house, was fined $5.

Fletcher Griffith, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct in flourishing a pistol and threatening to kill some of the inmates of the house, together with any policeman who had the temerity to attempt to arrest him. He was fined $50. He threw the weapon away when Officer Power appeared.

John Starks, colored, had been arrested by Special Officer Gibson, of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, on the charge of assaulting Henry Cooley, colored, with a rock and a bottle. He was fined $20.

Missouri Baker and Mamie Wood, both colored, charged with fighting forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

Later in the day four negro boys were arrested upon the charge of removing a skiff from the north shore of Hunting Creek and bringing it to the river front of the city. Their parents were ordered to correct them.

FATE OF THE CYCLOPS.

Officer of the Amolco Believes a Storm Caught Collier.

Norfolk, Va., April 19.—W. J. Riley, third officer of the steamship Amolco, which cleared from the West Indian island port three days ahead of the missing Cyclops, believes positively the Cyclops was lost at sea during a fierce gale that swept the sea 125 miles off Nantucket. Riley, who is in Norfolk stated the gale damaged the Amolco to the extent of $150,000, flooded the radio room and put the radio out of commission; smashed the lifeboats and buckled the ship.

The Amolco was forced to heave to at noon on Saturday, March 9, and the ship was unable to buck the sea until 2 o'clock Monday, March 11. During the gale extreme anxiety was felt for the safety of the vessel.

The Amolco was a lighter vessel than the Cyclops and was loaded with molasses, bound for Boston.

The Cyclops makes sixteen miles an hour, and the Amolco only ten miles an hour. Riley stated the speed of the Cyclops would have placed the ship in the wake of the gale, and he feels positive the Cyclops was sunk.

Norfolk, April 19.—Reports from Norfolk that Mrs. Emma Worley, wife of Lieut. Commander George Worley, of the naval collier Cyclops, had information that the vessel was safe, were denied by the Navy Department yesterday. Navy officials at Norfolk reported that Mrs. Worley denied having made statements attributed to her, and said she had no information which would lead her to believe the Cyclops was afloat. Friends of Mrs. Worley fear for her health.

Records of the Navy Department refute the report that Worley was a German by birth. The official statistics show that he was born in San Francisco, December 11, 1866.

LET US HAVE PURE MILK.

The letter, published in yesterday's issue of The Gazette, criticising Alexandria's milk supply, is most timely. With the season of hot weather approaching, every possible safeguard should be placed about this most important food, upon which the health of the children is so largely dependent. The Board of Health has the power to inspect every dairy supplying the city and to require that only pure, clean milk be sold.

This is a duty that the Board owes to the people and to their children and, if properly performed, will go far toward making the city more attractive to newcomers.

CLEANING UP THE CITY.

The police force of Alexandria began the annual inspection of yards, outhouses, etc., throughout the city this morning. The premises of every house in the city will be visited and ample opportunity given for the removal of any unsightly or unsanitary accumulations.

As has recently been suggested in the Gazette, it is the duty of every resident to vie in this work, it being imperative at the approach of warm weather. The city is becoming more congested every day, and every effort should be made to place the city in a sanitary condition. While unavoidable conditions may in some cases exist (we mean the lack of sewerage in certain sections)' the great bulk of nuisances can be removed, and it is hoped it will not be necessary to invoke the law in any case. While the movement inaugurated today is against private individuals who may be untidy upon their premises, the authorities should set the proper example by removing or obliterating anything calculated to breed annoyance or disease. There are foul gutters and ponds in different places which should secure attention at once.

AMERICA LEADS.

The Richmond Times Dispatch says there is nothing more interesting in the swift developments in Europe during the past two weeks than the increasingly important part which this country is taking in the war program. The allies seem to be granting to America a position of almost supreme direction in the matter of war policies, and are doing it ungrudgingly. This is apparent in all the moves recently made upon the great chessboard abroad.

Almost from the beginning of our belligerency, President Wilson has been the spokesman of the allies. His voice has been their voice. His declarations upon the subject of peace and the prolongation of the conflict have been heartily concurred in by every entente government. His demand that the diplomacy of this war be open and aboveboard was accepted with enthusiasm by Great Britain and France, notwithstanding their earlier reluctance to talk above a whisper upon any one vital issue.

It is one thing to give utterance to great principles and quite another thing to assume the direction of the war itself. Nobody would have imagined a year ago that the United States would even propose battle policies to the veterans warriors of the allied nations abroad. It would have seemed superlatively presumptuous for America to have assumed any such role. In fact, it was not believed then that this country could, or would, be more than a passive enemy of Germany in any event. Certainly it was not supposed here or abroad that the military forces of the United States would ever be a decisive factor in the struggle.

AN ARCH HYPOCRITE.

Emperor William recently made a visit to the battlefield near Qucant, west of Cambrai, a war correspondent of the Berlin Lokalanzeiger writes.

"His majesty's silence was broken only once," he says, "when he remarked to an officer who stood beside him: 'What have I not done to preserve the world from these horrors.'"

The present kaiser shows his estimate of human nature by supposing any sane man will believe his words. Like Pontius Pilate, he is endeavoring to wash blood from his hands, but the spots all remain and torture his conscience, if he has anything of this nature in his makeup, so long as he lives.

A German many years ago wrote a book entitled "Letters From Hell." The writer made many practical suggestions. He alleged that the passions which animate us in this world follow us into the next, and those who have drank to excess will see nothing in Tartarus but liquor bottles and hear nothing save the clinking of liquor glasses, while the orgies of the gin mill will never leave him. The libertine is represented as being eternally tortured with voluptuous scenes, such as he feasted upon while in the flesh. Pontius Pilate is represented as seated upon the banks of the Styx endeavoring to wash the blood of the Son of Man from his hands.

The kaiser will pay the debt of nature sooner or later. What a time he will have in attempts to wash his hands of the blood he has caused to be shed. The spooks of millions are awaiting his arrival in Hades, while millions still alive will rise up in the judgment and condemn him for making of them widows and orphans.

A TIMELY WARNING.

The Health Department of Baltimore is urging the vaccination of children against whooping cough and announced in a bulletin that it is prepared to furnish the virus without charge to physicians who will use it. This form of prevention has been recognized by the medical fraternity for several years.

The purpose of the bulletin is to call attention to the need of "great care at the present time in the management of children with whooping cough," as the department states it. They should be protected against exposure to inclement weather, but at the same time be given the proper amount of fresh air.

"Stuffy, ill-ventilated rooms must be avoided," the officials declare. "When the paroxysms are numerous," they say, "especially in bad weather, a child with whooping cough is best off in bed. On bright days, when properly clothed, a child should be allowed to play in the yard in the sunshine, or at least in a room with the windows wide open."

Continuing, the officials point out that "the great danger in whooping cough in children is the occurrence of bronchitis and pneumonia. During the week ended April 5, 1918, there was a total of 17 deaths attributed to whooping cough in Baltimore. All these were in children of 5 years of age or under, five were under 12 months, four were 1 year old and three were 2 years old.

"In the 17 children 12 had pneumonia and 1 bronchitis as complications. But one of the 17 children died of uncomplicated whooping cough. Up to Friday of the week just past there were 6 deaths due to whooping cough. Two of them were in children under 6 months of age. The disease was complicated with bronchitis in one case and with pneumonia in three.

"It is seen from the above that the chief dangers of whooping cough lie in the complications, and these can only be avoided by care. Whooping cough itself can be avoided by keeping children away from whooping-cough cases, or even if exposed by preventive inoculations. These are without danger.

"Adults are occasionally susceptible to whooping cough and the disease is particularly dangerous in elderly people."

USING TAR AND FEATHERS.

Five Austrians Dipped In Oil Tank at Pottsville, Pa.

Pottsville, Pa., April 19.—Five Austrians who refused to purchase Liberty Bonds at the Lyttle Colliery near here, were taken by the heels by the workmen and dipped into a steel tank used for heating oil for the colliery engines. The men are covered with an amber stain that cannot be washed off. Threats to sue the ringleaders of the men who composed the crowd brought the statement that a suit would result in the Austrians being strung up. The men all purchased bonds yesterday.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 19.—A. L. Hitchcock, Socialist member of the Cleveland School Board was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Marlatt on recommendation of United States District Attorney Wertz. The arrest was made under the espionage act. A statement made by Hitchcock a week ago in a meeting of the School Board, that millions of dollars subscribed to the Liberty Loan "would never be used for the purpose of beating the kaiser" led to his arrest.

Chicago, April 19.—The colossal statue of Goethe, with its inscription "The Master Mind of the German People," will remain at the entrance of Lincoln Park, it was announced yesterday. This decision of the Park Board followed threats that the statue might be destroyed unless removed. Superintendent J. C. Cannon said the statue would remain unless the Government desired its removal.

Trenton, N. J., April 19.—The German ritual will be discarded in the future by the New Jersey Grand Lodge of Masons. It was decided yesterday to have nothing but the English ritual. The suggestion for the change was made by the retiring Grand Master, William M. Thompson, at the closing session of the state convention. The decision also was indorsed by German lodges.

APRIL 26 LIBERTY DAY.

Citizens Called Upon to Hold Rallies and Pledge Anew Financial Support.

Washington, April 19. — Friday, April 26, will be Liberty Day throughout the United States under a proclamation issued last night by President Wilson calling on citizens of every community to hold Liberty Loan rallies and "liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the nation's cause."

Patriotic demonstrations similar to those on the opening day of the campaign will be held on April 26, and the day devoted to giving the race toward the three-billion-dollar war credit goal a new impetus for the final week.

Now, with the loan campaign almost half over $1,089,734,900 subscriptions have been reported to the Treasury, or $136,811,650 representing yesterday's business, and committees in every district have received orders to make extraordinary efforts to gather in pledges faster, in the hopes of meeting Secretary McAdoo's expressed hope for an over-subscription of the $3,000,000,000 minimum.

WHITE WILL NOT WITHDRAW.

Declares Emphatically He Does Not Intend to Continue as State Food Administrator.

Colonel E. B. White, resigned Federal food administrator for the state of Virginia, states emphatically that he will not withdraw his resignation, and that he will continue his campaign for the seat in Congress now occupied by Charles C. Carlin, Representative from the Eighth District of Virginia.

Colonel White's statement followed closely upon Coleman Wortham's declaration that he would not accept post now held by Colonel White. Mr. Wortham was considered the compromise nominee, following the inability of Governor Davis and the Virginia delegation in Congress to agree on a man for the post.

DESTITUTION IN AUSTRIA.

Food Riots Again Sweep Cities of Austria; Most Serious in Vienna.

Zurich, April 19.—Food riots are again sweeping Austria, the most serious being in Vienna.

Many meat markets have been stormed and the populace in some cases have done considerable damage when denied meat.

A mob of 10,000 persons on Sunday stormed a market that had only 1,000 kilograms of meat available. They then demanded horse flesh, and when none was forthcoming, they stormed the stalls.

Scores of persons are under arrest, and military guards are today aiding the police in preserving order.

Kumyss.

Samuel Blythe, in a series of articles on "getting on the water-wagon," a while ago, said that the man who could make a really good temperence drink would make "John D." look like a pauper.

We're not after the "John D. record," but we make Kumyss and Kumyss is a reallly good temperence drink.

It has been called the "champagne of milk," but even in a prohibition country, it's a safe kind of champagne.

Kumyss is more than a drink, though, it's a food, as well.

It's made from our good, clean milk.

It is fermented in the bottle and people with whom milk will not agree, can drink Kumyss.

People who drink milk, drink Kumyss, too, and we never saw any one who had drunk one bottle who did not want more.

Try it today, at any of Alexandria's soda fountains.

GERMAN CAPTIVES.

Surly, Sneering, Well-Fed Crew of Sunken Submarine, Under Soldiers' Escort, Seen at Station.

Thirty-eight surly, sneering, well-fed and alert Germans, the captured crew of the U-58, taken by the Fanning and the Nicholson, last November, arrived in Washington yesterday afternoon, bound for internment in a Georgia prison camp.

The captives came off the Southern train in columns of twos, led by their commander, Capt. Lieut. Gustav Ansberger, and his other officers, Otto von Ritgen, Paul Schroether, Friederich Ruller and Heinrich Ropke.

Following them were thirty-three of the crew. The officers were neatly dressed in their blue, with gold insignia. They glanced around the great station and grinned at each other. Back of them came the thirty-three men of the crew. They were in well-worn and well-used blue and the heavy canvas clothes of the machinists.

All of the men were undersized and the crew seemed composed mostly of boys from 18 to 20, while the officers were not more than 25 to 35.

On the back of the right leg of each, between the hip and the knee, was a large oval patch of red, eight inches high and six inches across. This could be seen easily a mile away.

"What's that for?" a sergeant was asked.

"That's what the Heinies have been asking us," he replied. "Let any of them try to run and he will find out pretty quick. Red is the best thing in the world to shoot at."

They were hurried into the main restaurant and hidden in a corner screened off from the public gaze.

A negro waiter threw some menu cards in front of half a dozen of them, before he was told the meal had already been arranged for. One of the rotund prisoners picked up the card and ordered:

"Bring ham and eggs to us five here."

"Got any chicken, Southern style?"

"Lordy," said the negro, hustling away, "dat man ain't no German, and he's suttinly picked de right direction to run fo' fried chicken. Ef he tells de whole Germany army 'bout dat chicken we won't have to send no mo' troops, no mo' troops at all. De wah am oveh."

The prisoners ate heartily, with the armed guard surrounding them. Then they were hustled back to the train, with seven husky soldiers bringing up the rear.

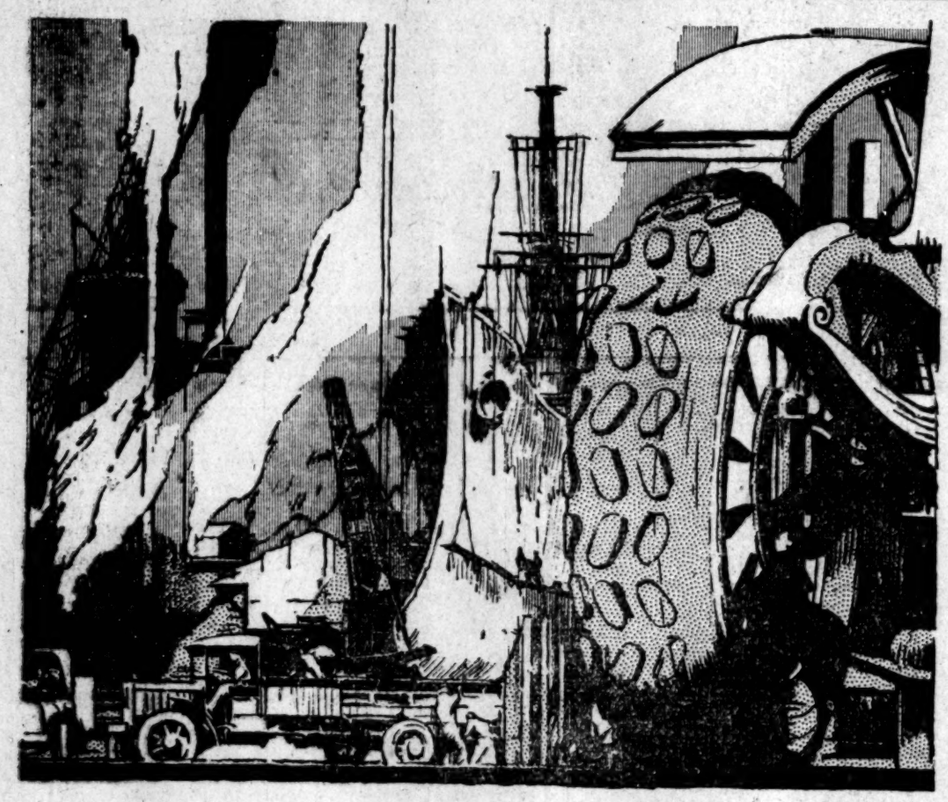
BELIEVE BANKER SLAIN.

Charged That German Agents Killed Heald at Lima, Peru.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 19.—Evidence was to be laid before Senators Albert Cummins and William S. Kenyon and Congressman James W. Good, of this city, at Washington yesterday by Samuel Heald, manager of the Panama Railroad Company, supporting charges that his brother, Paul Heald, American banker, was murdered at Lima, Peru, January 30 last. The evidence was to be transmitted to the State Department with the request that an investigation be made, as it is asserted proof will be found that Heald was not only murdered, but that his death was caused by German agents who feared an investigation he was about to begin would disclose their activities in Peru.

Heald, formerly a resident of Cedar Rapids, went to Lima a year ago as the agent of the Mercantile Bank of the Americas. On the morning of January 30 his body was found in an irrigation ditch. Samuel Heald, on investigating, found that the ditch had been dry the night before, but that water had been turned into it early in the morning. Death was caused by drowning, but the body is said to have been covered with bruises.



Liberty Bonds are the real weapons for Victory

We have made a start on the long hard road to Victory.

Our men are fighting at the front in France.

Our American industries have accomplished prodigious results in building up a war machine to furnish munitions and supplies.

But we have only begun.

We must do more and more.

This is not a war of armies but of nations in which every citizen must do his part.

Every worker in our industries is truly fighting in this war. Every man, woman and child who gives of substance and savings is adding to the national power.

The foundation of all our vast war-making machine is the Liberty Loan.

Money is needed to build more and more ships; to furnish food and guns and powder and transport and airplanes; to raise and equip new armies.

We must oversubscribe this Third Liberty Loan and do it quickly.

We must show the courage that is in us.

We must show a cheerful willingness to make sacrifices for our boys in the trenches.

TO WIDEN DRAFT.

House Committee Reports Act Taking in Men as They Reach 21 Years.

A favorable report was ordered yesterday by the House committee on the bill, already passed by the Senate, to draft young men who have attained their majority since the selective service act was passed. Amendments to increase the age limit to 40 years and to put newly drafted men at the foot of the list for registration were rejected. Divinity students will be subject to military duty.

The proposed law provides that each year the President may call young men who have attained their majority since the last registration to register, adding each year 1,000,000 men for military duty.
